I know nothing in life more beautiful than the rising sun. A welcome to the snowstorm or the melting Spring dew. This clear day, a tide of gold reaches up the hill to the lodge and crawls over the glittering silver wood pile until the sun shines through thin vapor onto the tops of peaks far away, coloring everything like flames. Ah, to see again that far horizon!

All day the wilderness watches me. I look back in awe and cherish when I see those who let me be their guest. This paradise will continue if respected, and it is a real satisfaction to be one of the people tasked with her care, and I am reminded,

"Servando ad fruendum posterorum."

What is captured next is the twilight. Late! To wade through the tide as it pulls back into the horizon, and know that all of which is around me is preserved like a precious gallery that will be enjoyed again. The young moon is near setting.

And if we, all of us, would come to the table with such magnificence and dignity and empty hands to envelope our glasses and embrace in revelry, after all is done, a day and night of sunshine or storms, we are here to live among other life.

After to-day I am care free.

RANGER STATION EAST SIDE TRAIL LODGE #925

Ranger Station is a new, rangers-only speakeasy tucked away in a secret den above Ladybird Grove & Mess Hall, where it's been perched for what feels like forever. Consider this your formal invitation to laze in this hideaway with us.

We hope you accept. Because, truthfully, you should have a drink with us soon to fully appreciate what makes the Station special. It requires a climb up a non-descript stairwell, and a venture through the backdoor and into the dark. While your eyes adjust to the amber lamplight, the palo santo haze will welcome you warmly into this long-hidden lodge.

Open your eyes a little wider to take in the memento-adorned walls and myriad vintage basement-luxe seating options.

Find your place at the bar - somewhere near the turntable. Let the crackling of a well-loved record from our personal collection help you decide which drink to raise first. Who to dance with? Take your time, there are too many to try all in one long, debaucherous evening.

Sink to the bottom of an impossibly deep armchair with a rare spirit - don't look at your watch for a while. Share a table with an old friend and ballast your last drink with a few plates - a little something special from the messhall.

When it's time to head home, let the last crackling seconds of a record and final embers of incense carry you out. We'll be right here next time you're ready to come up.

FULL BUY OUT

Ranger Station is available for private buyouts for you and your guests to have exclusive access to one of the most desired locales in the city. Your guests will appreciate the secluded and private nature of the speakeasy, and will surely toast to your excellence and taste when they've all had a chance to enjoy the space.

We host all types of events, including cocktail receptions, casual to formal dinners, live music, fundraisers, business lunches, retirement parties and happy hour gatherings. In the following pages, you will find photos of the space and sample menu selections for food and beverage.

SAMPLE DRINK MENU

OUR BAR is stocked for a snow-in and always innovating. Here are just a sampling of a few of our specialty cocktails. Of course, there's plenty of wine and beer to be had as well- you've got options.

EL CAPITAN

SAGE & CARDAMOM GIN, PINEAPPLE, LEMON, CLOVE

The unassumingly complex El Capitan is one of the most famous rock faces in the world. As you look up at the sheer, seemingly infinite granite, an inexplicable spiritual force both daunting and inviting overtakes you. Your gaze pans to survey the coniferous forests surrounding the valley floor as a warm sun and bracing wind dance through your senses. Based on a gimlet, this drink is adventurous, unassuming, and textural.

COTTONWOOD

GIN, APERITIF, VERMOUTH, LEMON, SPICED PEAR, VERJUS, BALSAMIC, PEPPERCORN, SALT

The sparse landscape of Joshua Tree invites contemplation and enlightenment. At Cottonwood, its most visited campground, witnessing the expansive views is an otherworldly experience, like peering into the soul of the unknown. This negroni sour is bracing and meditative. Peppercorns, pear, and red grape verjus anchor a bitter serve, an exercise in balance, attention to detail, and reflection.

OLD FAITHFUL

LEMON VODKA, PASSIONFRUIT, MANGO, LEMON, BLACK PEPPER VANILLA, MINT
